- 1. The Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV) authorities have begun to expand their United Front activities in order to consolidate minority racial groups and to strengthen their revolutionary forces. They are also encouraging members of minority racial groups to join the DRV armed forces. This movement is directed toward such minority racial groups in the hills as the Man ( ) tribe, the Kinh ( ) tribe, the Tho ( ) tribe, and the Ming ( ) tribe. The provincial United Front branch organizations are responsible for propaganda and the organization of this movement.
- 2. Under instructions from the DRW, the United Front branch organizations are taking the initial step by organizing the female members of minority racial groups. They plan to organize five women's service teams as follows:
  - a. Women's Civilian Service Team.
  - b. Women's Stretcher Service Team
  - c. Women's Transport Service Team
  - d. Women's Reconnaisance Service Team
  - e. Women's Medical Service Team.
